

On Dialogue between Islam and Judaism: "Others" and "Ours" in Re-thinking

July 2-3, 2009

Neesima Kaikan, Kyoto, Japan

Presented by

Center for Interdisciplinary Study of Monotheistic Religions (CISMOR)

&

School of Theology, Doshisha University

< Guest Speakers from Overseas >

Prof. Yakov Rabkin (University of Montreal)

Prof. Hashim Kamali (International Institute of Advanced Islamic Studies, Malaysia)

Prof. Esther Benbassa (Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes, Sorbonne)

Prof. Osman Bakar (International Institute of Advanced Islamic Studies, Malaysia)

PROGRAM

July 2

- 11:00 - 12:00 Tea Ceremony for the Guests from Overseas at Muhinsyuan
- 12:00 - 13:30 Greeting Lunch at Amherst Guest House
Welcome Remarks: Prof. Makoto Mizutani, Dean of School of Theology
- 14:00 - 18:00 OPENING Prof. Isaiah Teshima at Neesima Kaikan
First Session - From Religious Perspectives in Theories -
Chair: Prof. Isaiah Teshima
Speaker: Prof. Yakov Rabkin
"Non-Jews in Jewish Law"
Prof. Hashim Kamali
"Islam and Judaism: Juridical & Theological Perspective"
Respondent: Prof. Nobuo Miura, Prof. Hassan Ko Nakata, Prof. Toshiharu Nigo,
Prof. Hiroshi Ichikawa
Discussion
- 18:45 - 20:30 Banquet at Kyoto Garden Palace
Welcome Remarks: Prof. Koichi Mori, Director of CISMOR

July 3

- at Neesima Kaikan
- 9:30 - 12:30 Second Session - From Historical Perspectives at Issues -
Chair: Prof. Koichi Mori
Speaker: Prof. Esther Benbassa
"Otherness, Openness and Rejection in Jewish Context"
Prof. Osman Bakar
"Inclusive Islam and Exclusive Islam in the Quran"
Respondent: Prof. Akira Usuki, Prof. Samir Nouh
Discussion
- 12:30 - 13:30 Light Lunch
- 13:30 - 16:00 Third Session - From Reflections and Visions in Dialogue -
Chair: Prof. Hassan Ko Nakata
Initiators: Prof. Yuzo Itagaki, Prof. Mari Oka, Prof. Akifumi Ikeda
Discussion
- CLOSING Prof. Yakov Rabkin, Prof. Esther Benbassa, Prof. Osman Bakar