

CISMOR 一神教学際研究会 2019 -1
The First CISMOR Young Scholars' Research Group Workshop
In collaboration with
The Graduate School of Theology and the Graduate School of Global Studies

Program

Date: May 11, 2019 (Sat.)

Place: Shisei-kan, Meeting Room on third floor

SESSION A

Chair: Prof. Hisae Nakanishi, Graduate School of Global Studies

10:30 – Ms. Kyoko Shiga, "The Feature of Turkish Migrants in the U.S.: Discussion with Studies on Turkish migrants in Europe" (PhD student of the Graduate School of Global Studies)

11:00 – 11:30 Ms. Ako Muto, "How Humanitarian Assistance and Development Assistance under a Conflict Relates to the Sovereignty of the State? - Formulating the Framework for Analyzing the Syrian Conflict" (PhD student of the Graduate School of Global Studies)

11:30- 13:00 Lunch Break

SESSION B

Chair: Ada Taggar Cohen, Graduate School of Theology

13:00-13:30 – Ms. Miyaki Arai, "The various meanings of Hebrew words for the dead in Psalm 88"
(PhD student of the Graduate School of Theology)

13:30-14:00 – Ms. Etsuko Tsutsumi, "The Symmetry of The book of Jonah"
(PhD student of the Graduate School of Theology)

14:00-14:30 – Ms. Asano Keyaki, "The 'Wise Woman' (אִשָּׁה חַכְמָה) in the Hebrew Bible"
(MA student of the Graduate School of Theology)

14:30- 15:00 – Mr. Takuya Kobayashi, "Differently Abled in the Hebrew Bible"
(PhD student of the Graduate School of Theology)

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

SESSION C

Report on the Study Tour with KAKEHASHI project in the USA
The research theme was Jewish Studies and Research in the USA
The Study Tour was held 3/17- 3/24/2019

15:30 – 16:30 By the following researchers:

Dr. Taiji Abe (CISMOR Research Fellow)

Dr. Tetsu Kitamura (Lecturer the School of Theology, CISMOR Research Fellow)

Dr. Kotaro Hiraoka (Lecturer the School of Theology, CISMOR Research Fellow)

Dr. Anri Ishiguro (Assistant Professor School of Theology, CISMOR Research Fellow)

Closing Remarks