

Memories or Politics? Relations between China and Japan

Talk by

Professor Alan Hunter

Professor of Asian Studies, Centre for Trust, Peace and Social Relations, Coventry University, UK
Visiting Professor of Graduate School of Global Studies, Doshisha University

Friday, July 11th, 2014 at 3:00 PM

@ CISMOR meeting room (1st floor of Taishin-kan bld.)

We will have Professor Alan Hunter who will give an overview of the current tensions between China and Japan and their future paths. Please let us know if you would like to participate in this seminar beforehand to CISMOR office, info@cismor.jp. Registrations close on July 10.

Language: English only. No interpretation

Professor Alan Hunter's key research interests include the rise of China; the roles of religions in conflicts and in peacebuilding; and human security. His work covers Asian Philosophy and Chinese Studies and he works closely with institutions in East Asia, including Nanjing and Zhejiang Universities in China. He was director of the centre for peace and reconciliation studies from 2008 to 2012, and he is currently visiting professor at Doshisha University, Kyoto, Japan.

[Program]

15:00 - 15:10	Opening Remarks	Prof. Katsuhiko Kohara, Director of CISMOR
15:10 - 15:40	Lecture	Prof. Alan Hunter
15:40 - 15:50	Comment	Dr. Juichiro Tanabe, The Centre for Peace and Reconciliation Studies, Coventry University, UK
15:50 - 16:30	Discussion

Contact: CISMOR office

info@cismor.jp